

THE DIFFERENCE.—While the Radicals are in the lowest state of despondency, as destitute of enthusiasm as a dried up cabbage poultice is of curative properties, the Democracy, in all parts of the country, animated by the news of recent gratifying victories, devoted to their principles, determined to restore the Union and preserve the Constitution of